

Peri-Urban Consultations to Enhance Empowerment

The public relations consultations being carried out in the greater Suva - Nasinu corridor is part of the integrated concept of Government agencies reaching out to the people.

Those were the comments made by the Public Relations Coordinator at the Strategic Framework for Change Coordinating Office (SFCCO) – Office of the Prime Minister, Mr. Kisoko Cagituevei.

Mr. Cagituevei said the consultations continued to raise awareness in Suva - Nasinu on the importance of the elections and political development phase and encourage them to part take in it. It is also an opportunity to distribute copies of the Constitution to the people and briefly explain the fundamental concepts of the Constitution such as the Bill of Rights.

Mr. Cagituevei was accompanied by fellow PR Officers from SFCCO during the course of the Peri-Urban consultations.

The consultations in the Suva - Nasinu corridor took place over the last two (2) weeks of January.

PAO Mr. Kisoko Cagituevei, left, during the PR consultations in Nasinu

IO Aman Nath, right, during the PR consultations in Nawanawa, Nasinu